Treasureland

Dear friend of Faith Church,

Thank you for your interest in serving in our children's ministry. It is through the faithful service of our ministry workers that we are able to bless so many children and families. It is our goal to provide a safe place where our children can connect with Jesus Christ in a worship experience designed especially with them in mind.

Please know that this application is not intended to be intrusive or offensive in any way. Rather, our first concern is to protect not only our children, but also our church and its volunteers. If there is any part of this application that you are uncomfortable responding to in writing, you are invited to discuss your answer in confidence with the Director of Children's Ministry. Be assured that all information obtained through this application will be kept in the strictest confidence.

Please return this application to the "Treasureland" mailbox outside the office doors in the atrium. Contact us with any questions regarding this application or ministry at pkrygsheld@faithchurchonline.org or by calling the church office.
